Save Answer

Which of the following statements describe an appropriate way to prevent secondary damage following sexual harassment or violence on campus?

- 1. Since it can be difficult to keep the offender and the victim separate in different spaces on campus, the victim should take a leave of absence and stay home to recover.
- 2. It is unlikely that strong interest in the crime and all its minute details will lead to secondary damage and harm the victim.
- 3. Proceedings on the case can destroy the community. It is therefore better to recommend that the victim settle for mediation or reconciliation first.
- 4. It is important to empathize with the victim and think about what we, as third parties, can do to support him or her. It is also important to keep the details we have come to know confidential.
